

Applicant Name:

Requirements	How I meet The Requirements
At least seven (7) years of full-time professional career experience beyond completion of an earned terminal degree (PharmD, PhD, MD, MBBS, Nurse Practitioner and Physician Assistant), or ten (10) years beyond a collegiate degree (BA, BS, MA, MS), with experience/sustained contributions in any of the healthcare professions or any biomedical or pharmaceutical sciences related to the discipline of clinical pharmacology.
A minimum of five (5) years, including three (3) consecutive years leading up to the application, as an actively participating full Member of ACCP (years as Student Member not applicable).
Evidence of active participation in ACCP Committees, Subcommittees, Task Forces and/or Working Groups within the last five (5) years.
Evidence of attending ACCP Annual Meetings within the last three (3) years.
Evidence of meritorious work which is acceptable to the Credentials Committee and the Board of Regents, including at least two (2) criteria from the following list:
Any combination of five (5) of the three following items in the past seven (7) years: 1) publications in peer-reviewed journals, 2) serving as a speaker in a scientific conference presentation or as an invited speaker for an educational scientific presentation at a national or international level, and/or 3) patents. (Presentation of scientific posters and commercial and/or nonscientific presentations are not considered.
Receipt of national or international recognition or awards in clinical pharmacology or related fields, excluding trainee awards (applicant must describe how the award(s) reflect meritorious work).

Receipt of high-level corporate/governmental awards for sustained contributions in the field of clinical pharmacology or related fields, excluding trainee awards (applicant must describe how the award(s) reflect meritorious work).
Board certification from the American Board of Clinical Pharmacology and/or Certification by the Board of Pharmaceutical Specialties.
Minimum of five (5) years of sustained, verifiable contribution as an Editor, an Editorial Board member or a Reviewer of a peer-reviewed, professional journal indexed by the National Library of Medicine that includes substantial content relevant to clinical pharmacology.
Completion of the ACCP Leadership Development Program.
For non-academic colleagues, productivity in an adjunct research or teaching position contributing to education focused on a discipline of clinical pharmacology for at least five (5) years; or For academic colleagues, exceptional curricular development initiatives that advance teaching and learning in clinical pharmacology.	